

MITCHELL E. DANIELS, JR., Governor

JAMAL L. SMITH, Executive Director

July 28, 2011

MRS INGE VAN DER CRUYSSSE
401 NORTH MORTON STREET
SUITE 200
BLOOMINGTON, IN 47402

Dear MRS VAN DER CRUYSSSE,

The Indiana Civil Rights Commission is hosting a Statewide Continuing Legal Education Program in 2011 to celebrate 50 years of service to Hoosiers. The program, which includes six stops throughout the state, focuses on providing legal professionals with background and legal updates in Indiana Civil Rights Laws.

To commemorate our 50th Anniversary, the cost to attend each seminar is just $50!

The next stop in the statewide program is:

Friday, September 23, 2011

Defending Summary Judgment in Employment Discrimination Cases

10:00 am-12:00 pm (2.0 CLE Credits*)

Bloomington City Hall

Council Chambers

401 North Morton Street

Bloomington, Indiana 47404

Pending approval from the Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education*

Guest Speaker

Jeremy Dilts, Carson Boxberger, LLP

Mr. Dilts has handled dozens of employment law cases in the last decade, most of which have resulted in settlement or the grant of summary judgment. He is admitted to practice in both federal district courts in Indiana and is a member of the American Bar Association, the Indiana Bar Association and the Defense Trial Counsel of Indiana.

For more information about the Indiana Civil Rights Commission's 2011 Statewide Continuing Legal Education Program, or to register, visit our website at www.in.gov/icrc and click on the 2011 Statewide Continuing Legal Education Program icon on the left hand side of the page. For questions, call Brad Meadows at (317) 232-2651. Please register early as space is limited!

Sincerely,

Jamal L. Smith
Executive Director
Indiana Civil Rights Commission

